Mental health plays a vital role in everyone's life. Recent events, including political conflicts abroad, natural disasters, and instances of mass-violence and racial injustice, have further illuminated the need for mental health support services. We are proud to augment the work of Connecticut's counselors, who have remained steadfast and informed in their care for Connecticut residents. Our conferences aim to support them in their labors, and we are inviting you to be a part of that.

Over one hundred mental health counselors, graduate students, professors, and other mental health professionals come together to focus on these salient topics. The dynamic workshops provide terrific learning opportunities for our current and aspiring mental health counselors, who in turn impact the stability and mental well-being of hundreds of thousands of Connecticut residents.

We invite you to support Connecticut's mental health counselors at this event by becoming a sponsor today!

Please review our various sponsorship opportunities to identify and select your level of support, which will directly sustain the mission of the Connecticut Counseling Association.

We are excited to partner with your organization, and your sponsorship is greatly appreciated. Please feel free to contact us at cca_exec_dir@msn.com or visit www.ccacounseling.com to learn more about the exhibitor and sponsor options!
